Dear Frank:

I accept with pleasure your invitation to speak to the Palm Beach Round Table luncheon on March 20th, and look forward to being with you and the other Round Table members on that date. A member of my Public Affairs staff will contact you regarding arrangements.

Best wishes for the holiday season.

Sincerely,

Dear Frank:

Many thanks for your invitation to address the Palm Beach Round Table luncheon on January 25th. I would certainly enjoy meeting with you and your group in Palm Beach. However, I already have a long-standing commitment to give a speech in New England in late January, and cannot take on another commitment for that time.

I know it will be a great luncheon and I wish you and the Round Table all the best.

Sincerely,

JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Request
The Palm Beach Round Table
Palm Beach, Florida
1989

Chairman of the Palm Beach Round Table, Frank Wright, has invited you to share the podium with William Sessions at the group's meeting on a convenient date in 1989. Judge Sessions was scheduled to speak to the Palm Beach Round Table in February, but was called out of the country. Since Judge Sessions had to cancel his appearance, he may accept an invitation for next year. (See correspondence opposite.) You spoke to this group in 1980 and Mr. Wright also invited you to speak this spring.

The audience would be made up of approximately 1100 retired men and women who are interested in domestic and foreign policy issues. Dr. Edward Teller and Norman Vincent Peale spoke to the organization during the 1988 program season.

Since Judge Sessions may already be addressing this group, I think Washington will be well represented.

I recommend that you decline this invitation and have attached a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Frank:

I appreciated your invitation to share the podium with Judge Sessions for a meeting with The Palm Beach Round Table sometime during the 1989 season. As much as I would enjoy meeting with your group and sharing the podium with my good friend Bill Sessions, I cannot make a commitment to you at this time and will have to decline. Thank you for thinking of me.

Warmest regards.

Dear Judge Webster:

When that rescheduled date comes with Judge Sessions (see attached copy of his letter), I'm sure going to get in touch with you. Remember, the FBI-CIA great program at Round Table on April 17, 1980?

A CIA-FBI headliner in 1989 would be extraordinary.

Do keep an open mind for coming developments.

Have missed you this season, but understand.
